Version:2.8

Infosys Limited, its subsidiaries, associates, affiliated companies and branch operations hereinafter referred as 'Infosys', 'we', 'us' or 'our' are committed to respect your privacy and choices. The privacy statement (hereinafter "Privacy Statement" or "Statement") highlights our privacy practices regarding Personal Information that we collect and process in compliance to applicable data privacy regulations.

Objective:

Through this privacy statement we intend to provide a synopsis of our privacy practices regarding Personal Information that we collect and process about you through various sources. Although the primary focus of this statement is on the data collected and processed through our websites, that link to this Privacy Statement, which include www.infosys.com, www.infosysbpm.com, www.infosysequinox.com, www.infosys.org and their sub-domains such as blogs.infosys.com, abm.infosys.com, etc. (Collectively referred to as "Infosys Websites"), our adherence to the below mentioned principles remain across the organization towards personal data processing. Depending on the purposes of processing and your relationship with us as a data subject, we may provide additional customized privacy statements, more information on which can be found below.

The scope of this Statement covers the categories of personal data collected, how we use or process such data, who are the recipients of such data, and your associated rights under applicable laws including how to exercise the same. The applicability of the Privacy Statement is global, however certain additional information may be relevant to you depending on the country where you reside. Such additional terms, based on these particular countries or regions, are called out in region-specific statements below.

Wherever we may have provided the translation of our Statement in local languages, as per applicability, in case of a conflict between the local language and the English version, the English version shall prevail.

- For Infosysequinox.com and associated sub-domains, please refer to this cookie policy.

For some of the personal data processing we undertake, we might use AI, Machine learning and related technologies to enhance customer experience and data analytic capabilities, but whenever we do so, we use responsible AI practices.

1.4. Legal basis of the processing

The applicable privacy and data protection laws provide for certain justifiable grounds for collection and processing of personal data, commonly referred to as legal basis of processing. We primarily rely on the following legal bases:

1.4.1 We process your Personal Information when it is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are the party or in order to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract, e.g., when you would engage with us for receiving our services and offerings, or when managing the data of our employees for ensuring the performance of their employment contract.

1.4.2 We process your Personal Information when it is necessary for the purposes of a legitimate interest pursued by us or a third party (when these interests are not overridden by your data protection rights), e.g., when we need to understand your usage of our website and interaction with the same, for generating your secure login credentials, or to optimize our processes.

1.4.3 We process your Personal Information with your consent. Where we process Personal Data based on consent, your consent is revocable at any time, e.g., when registering and inviting you for events organized by us, or for sharing our marketing related communications with you.

1.4.4 We may process your personal Information to comply with any Legal obligations on us, including to applicable laws and protecting our legal rights, seeking remedies, and defending against claims.

2. Consequences of not providing Personal Information

If you choose not to provide your Personal Information that is mandatory to process your request, we may not be able to fulfill the relevant purpose of processing, including provision of any services to you, if applicable.

3. Data recipients, transfer, and disclosure of Personal Information:

3.1 Infosys does not share your Personal Information with third parties for their direct marketing purposes.

We share your Personal Information within

- Infosys or with any of its subsidiaries;
- Business partners;

- Service providers;
- Authorized third-party agents; or
- Auditors, and/or government authorities, where applicable.

3.2 Facilitating International Data Transfers:

We may transfer Personal Information to countries outside of your country of residence, either to Infosys group of companies or third parties, including to countries which have different data protection standards from those which apply in your country or region of residence. The locations of Infosys group companies are set out here. Our third-party service providers, partners are located globally; however, the primary locations are in USA, Canada, Australia, Singapore, Hong Kong, India, and UK.

When we transfer your data outside your country or region of residence, we will take reasonable and appropriate steps in accordance with applicable laws to ensure its protection. For intra-group transfers between Infosys group companies, we rely on binding corporate rules to safeguard your Personal Information. Where data is processed by third-party providers or partners acting as data processors, we implement Standard Contractual Clauses and, where appropriate, rely on applicable legal derogations to facilitate such transfers. For more information about international data transfers based on your country or region of residence, please refer to our region-specific Privacy Statements outlined below.

Please contact us as set out below if you would like to obtain a copy of the methods used when executing such international transfer as per applicable laws. When required, Infosys may disclose Personal Information to external law enforcement bodies or regulatory authorities, to comply with legal obligations. You can access the Infosys Binding Corporate Rules policies on the following webpage <https://www.infosys.com/privacy/binding-corporate-rules.html>

4. Your Rights:

4.1 Subject to the laws of your country, you may have certain rights as a data subject (including but not limited to right to information, access, rectification, erasure, object, restriction of processing, right to complain), relating to your Personal Information that we process. Where the data processing is based on your consent, you may withdraw your consent to the processing of any Personal Data at any time. This will not affect the lawfulness of any processing operation before your withdrawal.

Your rights as a data subject may differ based on your applicable jurisdiction. Please refer to region-specific data privacy statements for more information on the same.

4.2 Exercising your rights: For exercising your rights, we may need to request certain information from you for ascertaining your identity and confirming that you are entitled to exercise the same. You can exercise your rights by contacting us at privacy@infosys.com

4.3 Preference Center: You can choose to update your Infosys Marketing communications preferences from our Contact Preference center.

5. Data security

At Infosys, there exists a perfect balance between Governance, Process and Technology, the combination of which has established Infosys' commitment to its customers and stakeholders. Infosys adopts reasonable and appropriate security controls, practices and procedures including administrative, physical security, and technical controls in order to safeguard your Personal Information.

6. Data retention

Personal Information will not be retained for a period more than necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this privacy statement unless a longer retention period is required by law or for directly related legitimate business purposes. Personal Data that is no longer required to be retained as per legal and business requirements will be disposed in a secure manner.

7. Accountability and Compliance

We are committed to complying with applicable privacy and data protection laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which we operate. We maintain governance practices designed to support compliance, accountability, and continuous improvement in our handling of Personal Data. These practices may include privacy impact assessments, vendor due diligence, contractual data protection commitments, internal policies, training, audit processes, appropriate controls (such as access controls, secure storage, confidentiality obligations etc.), and procedures for responding to data subject rights requests and data incidents. We also periodically review our data protection practices in line with industry standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

8. Contact your Local Data Protection Authority

If you are unhappy with how we safeguard your personal data, depending on the laws of the countries where you reside, you have the right to bring a complaint to your local data protection authority.

9. Linked websites

Our privacy practices regarding Personal Information that we collect and store about you through our portals such as Recruitment and Global Alumni will be as per the privacy policy of those portals.

Infosys provides links to third-party websites and services. However, Infosys is not responsible for the privacy statements, practices, or the contents of such third-party websites.

10. Children's Privacy

Infosys Websites, its associated products or services and hosted contents, are not intended for the use by children.

As such we do not knowingly solicit or collect personally identifiable information online from children without prior verifiable parental consent. If Infosys Limited learns that a child has submitted personally identifiable information online without parental consent, it will take all reasonable measures to delete such information from its databases and to not use such information for any purpose (except where necessary to protect the safety of the child or others as required or allowed by law). If you become aware of any personally identifiable information we have collected from children, please email us at privacy@infosys.com.
